Steps for be a Salesforce Consulting Partner

There are major 5 steps through which you can be a certified salesforce consulting partner. Below is the description:

1. Join the Salesforce Partner Program

First, register your company on the Salesforce Partner Community. After approval, you'll get access to the tools, resources, and support you need to get started.

2. Set Up Your Partner Business Org

Partner Business Org is your dedicated Salesforce org for managing certifications, partner activities, KPIs, and deal registrations. Consider it your command center.

3. Build Your Certified Team

Begin your journey with essential certifications like Admin, App Builder, or Sales/Service Cloud and expand from there. Keep adding certifications over time.

4. Deliver Successful Salesforce Projects

Real project experience is a prerequisite for a Salesforce consulting partner. Submit customer success stories and completed projects to help Salesforce validate your expertise.

5. Earn Partner Points & Navigator Badges

Salesforce evaluates partners using a scorecard based on skills, customer success, engagement, and impact. Try to master Salesforce Cloud products to earn Navigator badges.
